DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Interviews Department for Self Reliance (DSR) applicants to determine continued eligibility for cash/non-cash assistance using the DSR Pathway to Self Reliance Manual, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) Policy Manual, and General Assistance (GA) Policy Manual requirements and enters data into the Tribal Assistance System (TAS). Informs DSR participants of federal guidelines regarding work requirements, eligibility time limits, sanctions, child support requirements and other requirements. Provides bi-cultural/bi-lingual counseling and guidance to DSR applicants about personal responsibility and economic self-sufficiency; utilizes human relation skills to motivate and instill confidence for clients and their families; provides alternatives in livelihood and social skills for clients. Evaluates economic, family, and employment support needs of applicants and their household; develops a case plan to meet requirements for changes in eligibility criteria. Refers clients through automation, phone calls, or written notice to other non-tribal resources and programs.

Coordinates with tribal and non-tribal programs including NN Child Care, Navajo Department of Workforce Development, Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program, and Medicaid programs to provide the DSR applicant with other services as a part of the case plan. Coordinates with other tribal and non-tribal resources and programs to provide additional supportive services including outreach/itinerant services, emergency assistance, food, clothing, education, crisis intervention, medical services, and transportation for the applicant and their families. As necessary, conducts home visits to provide outreach services for cash/non-cash assistance to include assessment, counseling, case plan and follow-up for applicant and their families and provide outreach services on an itinerant basis to community Chapter Houses. Responsible for maintaining knowledge about the Welfare Reform and all related Public Laws. Attends meetings, trainings and conferences which are pertinent to determine cash/non-cash assistance eligibility, program coordination and resource networking, case management, communication, motivational skills development, public laws and regulations and other welfare related activities.
